

We Don't Want To Be The Largest Bank...

We Just Want To Be Your Bank.

June 20, 2008- Kingstree, SC – Jerry D. Medlock, a Loris native, has joined Williamsburg First National Bank as Senior Vice President / Chief Credit Officer. Jerry will work at the banks headquarters in Kingstree, SC. Alan Chandler, President and CEO added that, “With more than 27 years of proven results, Jerry is an excellent addition to our Williamsburg First National Bank staff and we are excited to have him join us. We look forward to utilizing his diverse and extensive skills as we continue to grow and expand.” Mr. Medlock’s duties will include the supervision of the banks loan portfolio. Jerry has served at an executive level in the financial industry for over 16 years and his previous position was Executive Vice President/Chief Lending Officer/Chief Credit Officer of a bank in northern Virginia.

Mr. Medlock attended The Citadel, University of South Carolina and George Mason University and has a B.S. in Business Administration. He also graduated from the American Institute of Banking, the National Graduate School of Commercial Lending and the Graduate School of Banking at Louisiana State University. As an active community leader, he has served as the director for several charitable organizations.

Williamsburg First National Bank was founded in 1958. The banks four locations serve the Kingstree, Hemingway and Florence communities of South Carolina with plans underway to build another location on S. Irby St. in Florence. Williamsburg First National Bank is a community bank offering personal service and a wide variety of personal and business financial services including Same Day Banking.