

We Don't Want To Be The Largest Bank...

We Just Want To Be Your Bank.

October 20, 2008- Kingstree, SC – Larry Welch joined Williamsburg First National Bank as Vice President and branch manager of the banks West Palmetto Street, Florence, SC branch. Alan Chandler, President and CEO stated that, “As we grow and expand – especially in the Florence market – we continue to look for the most qualified personnel. Larry is a great example of what we look for. He has many years of experience, is well known and well respected throughout the community.”

Over the last 36 years, Mr. Welch has been a business owner, worked as a corporate executive for Sears Roebuck, Inc. and been a Vice President with Community Resource Bank and Wachovia.

Mr. Welch graduated from the University of South Carolina with a major in Marketing. Past boards he has served on include the Pee Dee Coalition Executive Board and the Florence Tennis Association Executive Board. He has also participated in Leadership Florence (2002-2003) and is a current member of the Florence Kiwanis Club.

Williamsburg First National Bank was founded in 1958. The banks four locations serve the Kingstree, Hemingway and Florence communities of South Carolina with a new location underway on S. Irby St. in Florence. Williamsburg First National Bank is a community bank offering personal service and a wide variety of personal and business financial services including Same Day Banking, Free Checking and No ATM Fees.